

Elections Newfoundland and Labrador requires all Special Ballot applicants to provide proof of their name and current address. Acceptable ID includes the following options:

1) One piece of ID that shows both your name and current address. For example, your driver's licence.

2) Two pieces of ID which, together, show your name and current address. At least one must have your current address. We accept e-statements and e-invoices. You may bring a printed copy or show them on a mobile device. For example:

- health card
- Canadian passport
- birth certificate
- certificate of Canadian citizenship
- citizenship card
- social insurance number card
- old age security card
- hospital card
- label on a prescription container
- identity bracelet issued by a hospital or long-term care facility
- blood donor card
- student identity card
- public transportation card
- library card
- utility bill or cell phone bill
- bank statement
- personal cheque
- government cheque/cheque stub or pension plan statement
- residential lease or sub-lease
- mortgage contract or statement
- income tax assessment
- property tax assessment or evaluation
- vehicle ownership, insurance certificate, policy or statement
- letter of confirmation of residence, letter of stay, admission form or statement of benefits from one of the following designated establishments:
 - student residence
 - seniors' residence
 - long-term care facility

3) If you cannot present ID that shows your name and address, you have two options:

- someone who knows you can attest to your identity and current address. This person, known as a Guarantor, must show proof of their own identity and address, but does not have to be from or live in the same district as you. However, they can only attest for one person. The Guarantor will have to complete Elections NL's "Guarantor's Form" (SB-F-10).

OR

- complete an affidavit, attesting to your identity in the absence of any other form of ID. Elections NL's form, called the "Affidavit for Voting by Special Ballot" (SB-F-12) must be signed by an official, such as a Judge, Barrister, Justice of the Peace or Commissioner for Oaths.

Important information about ID:

- Your name and current address must be printed on the ID. They cannot be added by hand.
- Expired ID is acceptable, as long as it has your name and current address.
- The list above is not an exhaustive list. If you have questions about the types of acceptable identification for Special Ballot voting, contact your Elections Newfoundland and Labrador toll-free at 1-877-729-7987.
