

Special Measures Order
(Atlantic Canadian Travelers)

Made pursuant to Section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act

June 23, 2021

TO: All individuals arriving in Newfoundland and Labrador from within Atlantic Canada

WHEREAS:

- A. While a declaration of a public health emergency is in effect, the Chief Medical Officer of Health may do one or more of the special measures authorized under section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act for the purpose of protecting the health of the population and preventing, remedying or mitigating the effects of the public health emergency;
- B. On March 18, 2020, the Minister of Health and Community Services, on the advice of the Chief Medical Officer of Health, declared:
 - (i) a public health emergency as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic;
 - (ii) the public health emergency is in effect for the entire province of Newfoundland and Labrador; and
 - (iii) the public health emergency is in effect for a period of 14 days effective immediately;
- C. The public health emergency has been extended for 14-day intervals and is currently still in effect.
- D. The Chief Medical Officer of Health, pursuant to subsection 28(2) of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, may provide notice in any manner that can reasonably be expected to give actual notice;
- E. The Chief Medical Officer of Health, pursuant to section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, made Special Measures Orders (Travel) dated May 15, 2020, Special Measures Order (Updated Self-Isolation Exemption Order) dated November 27, 2020, Special Measures Order (Rotational Workers – Self-Isolation Order) dated March 12, 2021, Special Measures Order (Essential Worker Work-Isolation Order) dated April 23, 2021 and Special Measures Order (Traveler COVID-19 Testing) dated May 15, 2021;
- F. The Chief Medical Officer of Health believes that, while special measures continue to be necessary for the purpose of protecting the health of the population and preventing, remedying or mitigating the effects of the public health emergency, certain restrictions set out in the aforementioned Special

Measures Orders as they pertain to travel between the Atlantic provinces are no longer required in the circumstances to respond to the public health emergency;

- G. The Chief Medical Officer of Health believes, in accordance with section 13 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, that the restrictions set out in this Special Measures Order (Atlantic Canadian Travelers) are the least intrusive measures reasonably required in the circumstances to respond to the public health emergency,

Pursuant to section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, I, Dr. Janice Fitzgerald, Chief Medical Officer of Health HEREBY ORDER:

1. Notwithstanding Special Measures Order (Travel) dated May 15, 2020, Special Measures Order (Updated Self-Isolation Exemption Order) dated November 27, 2020, Special Measures Order (Rotational Workers – Self-Isolation Order) dated March 12, 2021 and Special Measures Order (Essential Worker Work-Isolation Order) dated April 23, 2021, the following asymptomatic individuals and asymptomatic workers are exempted from the requirement to self-isolate for 14 days upon entry into Newfoundland and Labrador:
