

Special Measures Order (Amendment No. 5)

Made pursuant to Section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act

April 22, 2020

TO: All individuals who arrive in Newfoundland and Labrador from the oil sands camp located at Kearl Lake, Alberta

WHEREAS:

- A. While a declaration of a public health emergency is in effect, the Chief Medical Officer of Health may do one or more of the special measures authorized under section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act for the purpose of protecting the health of the population and preventing, remedying or mitigating the effects of the public health emergency;
- B. On March 18, 2020, the Minister of Health and Community Services, on the advice of the Chief Medical Officer of Health, declared:
 - (i) a public health emergency as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic;
 - (ii) the public health emergency is in effect for the entire province of Newfoundland and Labrador; and
 - (iii) the public health emergency is in effect for a period of 14 days effective immediately;
- C. The Chief Medical Officer of Health, pursuant to subsection 28(2) of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, may provide notice in any manner that can reasonably be expected to give actual notice;
- D. The Chief Medical Officer of Health, pursuant to section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, made Special Measures Orders effective March 23, 2020, March 24, 2020, March 25, 2020, March 31, 2020 and April 14, 2020;
- E. The Chief Medical Officer of Health believes that further special measures are necessary for the purpose of protecting the health of the population and preventing, remedying or mitigating the effects of the public health emergency; and
- F. The Chief Medical Officer of Health believes, in accordance with section 13 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, that the restrictions set out in this Special Measures Order (Amendment #5) are the least intrusive measures reasonably required in the circumstances to respond to the public health emergency,

Pursuant to section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, I, Dr. Janice Fitzgerald, Chief Medical Officer of Health HEREBY ORDER:

1. Notwithstanding the Special Measures Order (Updated Exemption Order) dated April 22, 2020, all individuals who arrive or have arrived in Newfoundland and Labrador since March 29, 2020 from the oil sands camp located at Kearl Lake, Alberta must self-isolate for 14 days immediately upon arrival in the province.
2. If they have not already done so, these individuals must also immediately contact 811 for appropriate follow up.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

1. This Order applies to all individuals who arrive in Newfoundland and Labrador from the oil sands camp located at Kearl Lake, Alberta.
2. All other Special Measures Orders remain in full force and effect.

TAKE NOTICE THAT:

1. Failure to comply with this order may result in an application to the Supreme Court, in accordance with section 42 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act to enforce the relevant provisions of this Order.
2. A person who is subject to an order made by the Chief Medical Officer of Health may request that the Chief Medical Officer of Health reconsider the order by filing a written request for reconsideration within 7 days after the day on which the order is served on a person. A written request for review or reconsideration of this order shall include:
 - (i) the reasons for the request;
 - (ii) a summary of the facts relevant to the request;
 - (iii) whether the order should be revoked or how it should be varied; and
 - (iv) the contact information of the person making the request and shall be sent to the following address:

The Chief Medical Officer of Health
Department of Health and Community Services
PO Box 8700
St. John's, NL A1B 4J6

3. The Chief Medical Officer of Health shall review this Order no less than once every 5 days while the Order is in effect.

4. This Order remains in effect during any review or reconsideration.
5. Failure to comply with this Order is an offence for which you may be liable on summary conviction in accordance with section 56 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act.
6. For greater certainty, compliance with this Order is required in addition to and not in substitution for any requirement imposed by or under any applicable law.

Signed at St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, this 22nd day of April, 2020.

Dr. Janice Fitzgerald
Chief Medical Officer of Health
