

Special Measures Order
(Atlantic Travel Amendments)

Made pursuant to Section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act

July 3, 2020

TO: All individuals arriving in Newfoundland and Labrador from within Atlantic Canada

WHEREAS:

- A. While a declaration of a public health emergency is in effect, the Chief Medical Officer of Health may do one or more of the special measures authorized under section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act for the purpose of protecting the health of the population and preventing, remedying or mitigating the effects of the public health emergency;
- B. On March 18, 2020, the Minister of Health and Community Services, on the advice of the Chief Medical Officer of Health, declared:
 - (i) a public health emergency as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic;
 - (ii) the public health emergency is in effect for the entire province of Newfoundland and Labrador; and
 - (iii) the public health emergency is in effect for a period of 14 days effective immediately;
- C. The public health emergency has been extended for 14-day intervals and is currently still in effect.
- D. The Chief Medical Officer of Health, pursuant to subsection 28(2) of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, may provide notice in any manner that can reasonably be expected to give actual notice;
- E. The Chief Medical Officer of Health, pursuant to section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, made Special Measures Orders (Travel) dated May 15, 2020, Special Measures Order (Declaration Exemption Order) dated May 16, 2020 and Special Measures Order (Self-Isolation Exemption Order) dated May 29, 2020;
- F. The Chief Medical Officer of Health believes that, while special measures continue to be necessary for the purpose of protecting the health of the population and preventing, remedying or mitigating the effects of the public health emergency, in accordance with section 13 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, certain restrictions set out in the aforementioned Special Measures Orders as they pertain to travel between the Atlantic provinces are no longer required in the circumstances to respond to the public health emergency,

Pursuant to section 28 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act, I, Dr. Janice Fitzgerald, Chief Medical Officer of Health HEREBY ORDER:

1. The Special Measures Order (Self-Isolation Exemption Order) is amended by adding immediately after Order No. 9 the following:

10. The following Asymptomatic individuals are exempted from the requirement to self-isolate for 14 days upon entry into Newfoundland and Labrador:

(a) residents of Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island or New Brunswick when entering the province of Newfoundland and Labrador; and

(b) residents of Newfoundland and Labrador when returning to the province from another province in Atlantic Canada provided they have not travelled beyond the named provinces in the previous 14 days.

2. The Special Measures Order (Declaration Exemption Order) is amended by adding immediately after Order No. 3 the following:

4. Notwithstanding Order No. 5 of the Special Measures Order (Travel), the requirement for individuals to provide specifics of their plan for complying with the requirement to self-isolate for 14 days following their arrival in the province does not apply to:

(a) residents of Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island or New Brunswick when entering the province of Newfoundland and Labrador; and

(b) residents of Newfoundland and Labrador when returning to the province from another province in Atlantic Canada

provided they have not travelled beyond the named provinces in the previous 14 days.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

1. This Order is effective as of July 3, 2020.

2. All other Special Measures Orders remain in full force and effect.

TAKE NOTICE THAT:

1. Failure to comply with this order may result in an application to the Supreme Court, in accordance with section 42 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act to enforce the relevant provisions of this Order.
2. A person who is subject to an order made by the Chief Medical Officer of Health may request that the Chief Medical Officer of Health reconsider the order by filing a written request for reconsideration within 7 days after the day on which the order is served on a person. A written request for review or reconsideration of this order shall include:
 - (i) the reasons for the request;
 - (ii) a summary of the facts relevant to the request;
 - (iii) whether the order should be revoked or how it should be varied; and
 - (iv) the contact information of the person making the request and shall be sent to the following address:

The Chief Medical Officer of Health
Department of Health and Community Services
PO Box 8700
St. John's, NL A1B 4J6
3. The Chief Medical Officer of Health shall review this Order no less than once every 5 days while the Order is in effect.
4. This Order remains in effect during any review or reconsideration.
5. Failure to comply with this Order is an offence for which you may be liable on summary conviction in accordance with section 56 of the Public Health Protection and Promotion Act.
6. For greater certainty, compliance with this Order is required in addition to and not in substitution for any requirement imposed by or under any applicable law.

Signed at St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, this 3rd day of July, 2020.

Dr. Janice Fitzgerald
Chief Medical Officer of Health
