Overview

The Income and Employment Support Act authorizes the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to appoint an appeal board. The Income and Employment Support Appeal Board (the Board) is an independent, arms-length body authorized to hear appeals on decisions regarding income support, as well as eligibility for employment supports funded by the province and those funded through the Labour Market Agreement for Persons with Disabilities. The Board also hears appeals with respect to coverage under the Newfoundland and Labrador Prescription Drug Program, under section 40 of the Pharmaceutical Services Act. The Board is primarily governed by the Income and Employment Support Act.

The Board is comprised of a chair, vice-chair and a member, one of whom is a current or former recipient of income or employment support. Three alternate members are also appointed, one of whom is also a current or former recipient of income or employment support. Each member is appointed for three years by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and is eligible for re-appointment.

The members of the Income and Employment Support Appeal Board for 2016-17 were:

- Mr. Joseph Greene, Chairperson, Avalon Region
- Mr. David Manning, Vice-Chairperson, Avalon Region
- Ms. Leona Ezekiel, Member, Avalon Region
- Mr. Andrew Tobin, Alternate Member Western Region
- Ms. Diane Verge, Alternate Member, Avalon Region
- Mr. Jerry Hynes, Alternate Member, Avalon Region

The board members are appointed from the general public and receive remuneration in accordance with Provincial Government policies. The remuneration, travel expenses and costs associated with the work of the Board are included in the budget of the Department of Advanced Education, Skills and Labour under General Administration. Costs associated with the Appeal Board for 2016-17 were approximately $77,850 compared to $97,500 in 2015-16. The Board reduced expenditures this fiscal year as a result of reduced travel and operating costs. Full budget details can be found in Table 4, in the Appendix on page 6.

The Board has an Executive Secretary who is an employee of the Department of Advanced Education, Skills and Labour. This position provides administrative support to the chairperson and members, to enable the Board to deal promptly and effectively with all appeals. The salary for this position is included in the Department's budget. The Executive Secretary has no voting privileges.

The first formal level of appeal for an income support client or a provincially-funded employment support client is a request for an internal review. These reviews are completed by departmental employees and are outside the mandate of the Board. During 2016-17, a total of 546 applications were received for internal review. One hundred and seven of these were resolved informally, seven were cancelled, and 327 elected not to proceed further.

The second formal level of appeal is a request for an appeal hearing with the Board. One hundred and five applications came forward in 2016-17 for a formal appeal. There were 45 hearings this fiscal year. The Executive Secretary also coordinated work for the other 60 hearings which were either postponed, resolved, or clients chose not to proceed. The number of applications increased and hearings increased from the previous year, when 95 applications came forward, with 39 hearings held in 2015-16.

Board hearings are typically scheduled for every three weeks with appellants generally joining via teleconference (Note: an in-person appeal is possible upon request). In 2016-17, the average waiting period for a hearing was 20 calendar days.

There were no applications for appeal with respect to eligibility for benefits under the Newfoundland and Labrador Prescription Drug Program during 2016-17.
