The landlord issued a termination notice dated 08 January 2021 for the intended termination date of 22 January 2021 under Section 19 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018.
5. In a proceeding under the Residential Tenancies Act, the applicant has the burden of proof. Issue 1: Rent Owing - $1800.00

Relevant Submissions

Landlord Position

12. The landlord stated that they had entered into a written term rental agreement with the tenant on 27 January 2020 and set to expire on 30 June 2021. The current agreed rent is set at $805.00 per month and due on the 1st day of each month with a security deposit in the amount of $588.75 collected on this tenancy on or about 27 January 2020.
13. The landlord stated that there has been no payments of rent for May 2021 and the last time the tenant was at a zero balance was in August 2020.
14. The landlord outlined the arrears with rental records (Exhibit L # 1) as total rent outstanding is $1800.00 up to and including 31 May 2021. The landlord stated as of the hearing date 13 May 2021 the tenant remained in the unit and rent is outstanding.

Analysis

15. I have reviewed the testimony and evidence of the landlord in this matter. As far as I can see, there is 1 issue here that needs to be addressed: (i) is the rent that is being claimed by the landlord actually owed by the tenant.
16. With respect to the arrears being claimed, I agree with the landlord that rent is owed. Rent is required to be paid by the tenant for use and occupation of the rented premises as set out in the rental agreement established when the tenancy began. Records are clear that rent for the period ending 30 April 2021 has not been paid leaving a balance of $995.00. Further, rent for May 2021 can only be calculated up to and including the day of the hearing (13 May 2021). That calculation is $($805.00 \times 12 \text{ months} = $9660.00 \div 365 \text{ days} = $26.47 \text{ per day} \times 13 \text{ days} = $344.11)$. Rent for May 1 - 13, 2021 is $344.11.
17. Additionally, the tenant is responsible for rent on a daily basis in the amount of $26.47 beginning on 14 May 2021 and continuing until the day the landlord obtains vacant possession of the rented premises.

Decision

18. The landlord's total claim for rent succeeds as follows:
- a) Rent owing up to 30 April 2021 $995.00
 - b) Rent owing for May 1 - 13, 2021 344.11
 - c) Subtotal $1339.11

 - d) Total due to Landlord..... $1339.11

 - e) A daily rate beginning 14 May 2021 $26.47

Issue 3: Vacant Possession of the Rented Premises

Landlord Position

19. The landlord is seeking to recover possession of the rented premises located at [REDACTED]
20. The landlord testified that when the tenant fell in arrears, they issued a termination notice under Section 19 of the Act (Exhibit L # 1) to terminate the tenancy on 22 January 2021. The landlord testified that the notice was served personally and as of the hearing date (13 May 2021), the tenant remained in the unit. The landlord testified that there is 1 adult living in the unit.

Analysis

21. Established by undisputed statement of fact above, the rental agreement is a written fixed term tenancy set to expire on 30 June 2021. The validity of the termination notice is determined by its compliance with the notice requirements identified in Sections 19. (1)(b), (4) and 34 as well as the service requirements identified in Section 35.
22. The issue of rental arrears has been determined above confirming that the tenant owes rent to the landlord.
23. Section 19. (1)(b) requires that rent be overdue for 5 days or more before the landlord may give the tenant a termination notice to vacate the property not less than 10 days after the notice is served on the tenant. On examination of the termination notice issued and submitted into evidence (Exhibit L # 1), I find the notice was served on 08 January 2021 with a termination date of 22 January 2021. As established above and undisputed by the tenant, rent had been in arrears since August 2020. As rent had been in arrears for 30 plus days, I find this is well beyond the 5 day requirement set out in the Act. I further find that as the date of termination identified on the notice is 10 clear days between the date the notice was issued and the date the tenant is required to move out, the termination notice is in full compliance with the requirements of Section 19. (1)(b).

24. Sections 19. (4) and 34 below identify the technical requirements of the termination notice. On examination of the termination notice, I find it all these criteria have been met.

Section 19. (4)

In addition to the requirements under Section 34, a notice under this section shall

- (a) be signed by the landlord;*
- (b) state the date on which the rental agreement terminates and the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises; and*
- (c) be served in accordance with section 35.*

Section 34

A notice under this Act shall

- (a) be in writing in the form prescribed by the minister;*
- (b) contain the name and address of the recipient;*
- (c) identify the residential premises for which the notice is given; and*
- (d) state the section of this Act under which the notice is given.*

25. As identified above, the landlord testified that the termination notice was served personally which is a permitted method of service identified under Section 35.
26. According to the reasons identified above, I find that the termination notice issued by the landlord to be proper and valid. Therefore, the landlord is entitled to an order for vacant possession of the property along with an order for any charge for the certification of the attached orders and all costs associated with the Sheriff to enforce such a Possession Order should the Sheriff be engaged to execute the Possession Order.

Decision

27. The landlord's claim for vacant possession succeeds. The landlord is further awarded costs associated with the certification of and enforcement of the Possession Order by the High Sheriff of NL.

Issue 4: Hearing Expenses

Landlord Position

28. The landlord paid a fee in the amount of $20.00 as an application filing fee and presented a receipt from Digital Government and Service NL [REDACTED] (Exhibit L # 4). The landlord paid a fee to Canada Post in the amount of $14.88 for the service of documents by registered mail (Exhibit L # 5). The landlord is seeking these costs.

Analysis

29. I have reviewed the testimony and evidence of the landlord in this matter. The expenses incurred by the landlord are considered a reasonable expense and are provided for with in Policy 12-1 Recovery of Fees: Filing, Costs, Hearing Expense, Interest, Late Payment and NSF. As such, I find the tenant is responsible to cover these reasonable expenses.

Decision

30. The tenant shall pay the reasonable expenses of the landlord in the amount of $34.88.
