How to Make an Originating Application

Instructions for the Applicant

An Originating Application (Form 4.03A) is a document you must use to start a family law court proceeding. Your Originating Application tells the Court that there are family law issues that you would like to have resolved. If you start an Originating Application, you are the Applicant. The other person is the Respondent.

If you are making an application together with the other person (ie. a joint application), you cannot use this form. You must do a Joint Originating Application (Form F4.04A).

Completing Your Originating Application

You can fill out this form by hand or you can download and fill out this form electronically at <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/rules-practice-notes-and-forms/family/general/> (If you fill out the form electronically, you must still print the form, file it with the Court, and serve a copy on the Respondent). You must fill out pages 1-5 of the Originating Application and attach any schedules and additional forms that apply to you. If you need more space to fill out any section of this Originating Application, attach an extra page and indicate which section is continued on the extra page.

Filing Your Originating Application

You must make 3 extra copies of your completed and signed Originating Application (including any additional documents). To file your Originating Application, you can either bring it to a Supreme Court location near you or you can mail it to a Supreme Court location near you (with the filing fee attached). You can look up the fees online: <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/schedule-of-fees/>

Serving Your Originating Application

You must give a copy of the Originating Application to the Respondent. This is called service. You have 180 days to serve the Respondent after you have filed the Application. If you do not serve the Application in 180 days, it will expire and you may have to file a new Originating Application.

If your Application involves divorce and/or parenting, an adult (who is not you) must hand-deliver the Application to the Respondent. This is called personal service. You will have to file an Affidavit of Service (Form F8.03A) with the Court.

If your Application does not involve divorce or parenting, you can serve the Respondent by personal service, leaving a copy with the Respondent's lawyer, leaving a copy at the Respondent's address, registered mail/courier, or regular mail. You can also serve by fax, email, or electronic document exchange, if the Respondent has provided that information. You will have to file an Affidavit of Service (Form F8.03A), Acknowledgement of Service (Form F8.04A), a copy of the document with the recipient's lawyer's endorsement on it, a reply email, or a delivery confirmation with the Court.

How to Make an Originating Application for Variation

Instructions for the Applicant

You may use an Originating Application for Variation (Form F5.05A) if you want to change a final family law order or domestic contract, such as a marriage contract, separation agreement, cohabitation agreement or paternity agreement, that has been filed with the Court under s. 42 of the Family Law Act. If you start an Originating Application for Variation, you are the Applicant. The other person is the Respondent. If you are making an application together with the other person (i.e. a joint application), you cannot use this form. You must make a Joint Originating Application for Variation (Form F5.06A).

Completing Your Originating Application for Variation

You can fill out this form by hand or you can download and fill out this form electronically at <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/rules-practice-notes-and-forms/family/general/> (If you fill out the form electronically, you must still print the form, file it with the Court, and serve a copy on the Respondent).

You must fill out pages 1-5 of the Originating Application for Variation and attach any schedules and additional forms that apply to you. If you need more space to fill out any section of this Originating Application for Variation, attach an extra page and indicate which section is continued on the extra page.

Filing Your Originating Application for Variation

You must make 3 extra copies of your completed and signed Originating Application for Variation (including any attachments). File the original Originating Application for Variation with the Court. To file your Originating Application for Variation, you can either bring it to a Supreme Court location near you or you can mail it to a Supreme Court location near you (with the filing fee attached). You can look up the fees online: <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/schedule-of-fees/>

Serving Your Originating Application for Variation

Once you have filed your completed Originating Application for Variation with the Court, you must give a copy of the Application and the 'Instructions for the Respondent' page to the Respondent. This is called service. You have 180 days to serve the Respondent after you have filed the Application. If you do not serve the Application in 180 days, it will expire and you may have to file a new Application.

If your Application involves parenting, an adult (who is not you) must hand-deliver the Application to the Respondent. This is called personal service. If your Application does not involve parenting, you can serve the Respondent by leaving a copy with the Respondent's lawyer, leaving a copy at the Respondent's address, registered mail/courier, or regular mail. You may also serve the Respondent using fax, email, or electronic document exchange, if the Respondent has provided that information.

You may have to file an Affidavit of Service (Form F8.03A) or Acknowledgement of Service (Form F8.04A) with the Court. These forms are available online: <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/rules-practice-notes-and-forms/family/general/>

How to Respond to an Originating Application or Originating Application for VariationInstructions for the Respondent

If you have been served with an Origination Application or an Originating Application for Variation, you are the Respondent in a family law court proceeding. The person who has started this proceeding is the Applicant. A Response (Form F6.02A) is a form you use to respond to an Application. In the Response, you set out what your position is on the family law issues. You may also make your own claims in your Response.

If you do not respond, the Court may proceed and make an order without hearing from you.

Completing Your Response

You can fill out this form by hand or you can download and fill out this form electronically at <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/rules-practice-notes-and-forms/family/general/> (If you fill out the form electronically, you must still print the form, file it with the Court, and serve a copy on the Applicant). You must fill out pages 1-4 of the Response and attach any schedules and additional forms that apply to you. If you need more space to fill out any section of this Response, attach an extra page.

If you are Responding to a claim for child support, you must attach all of the applicable financial documents set out on page 4 of the Financial Statement (Form F10.02A).

Filing Your Response

You must make 3 extra copies of your completed and signed Response (including any additional documentation). File your original Response with the Court. To file your Response, you can either bring it to a Supreme Court location near you or you can mail it to a Supreme Court location near you (with the filing fee attached). You can look up the fees online: <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/schedule-of-fees/>. You have only 30 days after the Application has been served on you to file your Response (You have 60 days if you have been served outside of Canada or the United States).

If the Applicant is making an application to vary a support order made under the Divorce Act and you reside in a different province, you may, within 40 days after receiving the application, request that the Court convert the application to an inter-jurisdictional proceeding. For more information on this process, you can contact the Court.

Serving Your Response

You must give a copy of the Response to the Applicant. This is called service. You have only 30 days after the Application has been served on you to serve your Response (You have 60 days if you have been served outside of Canada or the United States). If you are making a new claim for parenting or divorce in your Response, an adult (who is not you) must hand-deliver the Response to the Applicant. This is called personal service. If you are not making a new claim for parenting or divorce, you may also serve the Applicant by personal service or by leaving a copy with the Applicant's lawyer, leaving a copy at the Applicant's address, registered mail/courier, or regular mail. You may also serve the Applicant using fax, email, or electronic document exchange, if the Applicant has provided that information.

You may have to file an Affidavit of Service (Form F8.03A) or Acknowledgement of Service (Form F8.04A) with the Court. These forms are available online: <https://www.court.nl.ca/supreme/rules-practice-notes-and-forms/family/general/>
