

Landlord's Notice to Terminate Early – Cause

Residential Tenancies Act 2018 – Sections 19, 20, 21, 22, 24

Instructions

- Use this form when you want to inform the tenant that you are terminating the rental agreement early for the reason identified and permitted in the Act. All sections of this form are required to be completed. The landlord completing the form must place their signature at the bottom where required. Ending the rental agreement for one tenant named on the rental agreement ends the rental agreement for all tenants.

Authority and Notice Requirements

Section 19 Failure to pay rent	In a week to week rental agreement, rent must be overdue for 3 days or more before the landlord can give a notice to move out not less than 3 days after the notice is served. In a month to month, fixed term, or site for a mobile home rental agreement, rent must be overdue for 5 days or more before the landlord can give a notice to move out not less than 10 days after the notice is served on the tenant.
Section 20(2)(3)(4) Breach of material term	Where a tenant breaches a material term of a rental agreement, the landlord may provide the tenant written notice of the breach and provide a reasonable time to correct the situation. If the tenant does not correct the situation, the landlord may give a notice to move out: (i) not less than 7 days before the end of a rental period where the residential premises is rented from week to week; (ii) not less than 1 month before the end of a rental period where the residential premises is rented from month to month, fixed term, or (iii) a site for a mobile home.
Section 21(2)(3) Premises uninhabitable	Where a tenant makes a residential premises unfit for habitation by doing something or by neglecting to do something, the landlord may give the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and that the tenant is required to move out immediately.
Section 22 Tenant's obligation not met	Where a tenant does not keep the premises clean and repair damage beyond normal wear and tear, the landlord may give the tenant notice requiring the tenant to correct the situation within 3 days. If the tenant does not correct the situation, the landlord may give the tenant notice to move out not less than 5 days after the notice has been served.
Section 24 Interference with peaceful enjoyment and reasonable privacy	Where a tenant interferes with the rights and reasonable privacy of the landlord or of other tenants, the landlord may give notice to move out not less than 5 days after the notice has been served.
Before the end of the rental period	The notice period must include a full rental period. For example, in a fixed term rental agreement where rent is paid monthly on the 1st of each month, if rent is paid on January 1st, the landlord must receive the termination notice from the tenant on or before January 1st for the rental agreement to end on January 31st. If the tenant provided notice to the landlord on December 15th, the proper termination date would still be January 31st and not January 14th because rent is paid on the 1st of the month and the notice period must include a full rental period.
