1. With respect to the use and operation of elevating devices, amusement rides, pressure and electrical systems, subsection 30 (1) of the Public Safety Act states "An owner, operator or installation contractor of a system or device shall pay the fees, expenses, charges or levies that may be set by the minister and, where the issue of a certificate, license or permit requires the payment of a fee, the person requesting the certificate, license or permit shall pay the fee set by the minister."

2. With respect to the registration and inspection of pressure welding procedures, subsection 30(2) of the Public Safety Act states "The minister may set fees with respect to the registration of, inspection of or the issuance of certificates, licenses or permits relating to systems or devices or for a purpose relating to the administration of this Act or the regulations."
3. With respect to the Buildings Accessibility Act, section 16 states "A person who owns a building or his or her agent shall pay the fees, expenses, charges or levies made in accordance with this Act and as prescribed by the minister."
4. With respect to the Buildings Accessibility Regulations under the Buildings Accessibility Act, subsection 20(1) states, "Every application made to the director for registration of the design for the construction of, addition to, or reconstruction of a building shall be accompanied by a fee for registration as prescribed by the minister." "A fee paid under subsection (1) is not refundable if the drawings and specifications required under subsection 15 (1) are rejected for registration."
5. The Minister may issue the following revenue refunds:

All requests for refunds must be approved by a Manager/Director of the respective issuing office.

Where a refund is issued under this policy to an individual who has an outstanding debt to the Crown, that refund or appropriate portion of it, shall be paid against the outstanding debt.

Where a person issues to the Department a cheque subsequently determined to be not sufficient funds (NSF), or caused chargebacks to be placed against VISA or MasterCard payment to the Department, the Minister may charge an administrative fee of $25 to that person and all subsequent transactions with the Department shall be on a cash, certified cheque or money order only basis.
