Powers of adjudicator

23. (1) At the commencement of the hearing the adjudicator shall determine whether there are objections and where an objection relates to the reference, the adjudicator shall have the power to amend the reference and the proceeding may be adjourned to enable the police officer sufficient time to prepare his or her answer to the amended reference.

(2) The adjudicator shall read from the reference the alleged conduct of the police officer forming the basis of the complaint to that police officer and shall inquire whether each allegation is admitted or denied.

(3) Where there is no response to the inquiry made under subsection (1) the police officer shall be considered to have denied the allegation.

(4) The adjudicator shall record the response given by the police officer, or the lack of a response, on the reference.

(5) Where a police officer admits an allegation, the adjudicator shall find that the complaint is substantiated and the adjudicator shall give the commissioner and the police officer or their representatives an opportunity to

(a) present the facts of the allegation which the police officer admitted; and

(b) make submissions concerning the penalty to be imposed.

(6) Technical errors as to form, failure to file or give notice on time and other procedural errors of a minor nature do not go to the jurisdiction of an adjudicator unless the error will, in the opinion of the adjudicator, prejudice a fair determination of the issues at the public hearing.
