AND WHEREAS the Temporary Order was issued, in keeping with section 127. (5) of the Securities Act, as the Superintendent concluded that the length of time required to hold a hearing could be prejudicial to the public interest;

AND WHEREAS a Statement of Allegations was filed by staff with the Superintendent on December 2, 2013;

AND WHEREAS the Statement of Allegations and a Notice of Hearing were served on the respondents via email on December 2, 2013, receipt of which was acknowledged by the respondents;

The respondents are acting and have acted in contravention of the Securities Act through a “trade” or “trading” which includes:

- (i) a sale or disposition of a security for valuable consideration, whether the terms of payment be on margin, instalment or otherwise, but does not include a purchase of a security or, except as provided in subparagraph (iv), a transfer, pledge or encumbrance of securities for the purpose of giving collateral for a genuine debt,

- (iii) receipt by a registrant of an order to buy or sell a security,
- (iv) a transfer, pledge or encumbrancing of securities of an issuer from the holdings of a person or company or combination of persons or companies described in subparagraph (1)(iii) for the purpose of giving collateral for a genuine debt, and as they are not registered nor exempted to trade in securities in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

AND WHEREAS the respondents have been soliciting residents of Newfoundland and Labrador to trade in securities;

AND WHEREAS the respondents are not registered to trade in securities in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador and are thereby acting in contravention of the Securities Act;

AND WHEREAS staff presented evidence that the respondents are unlawfully trading in securities; and, that there is no evidence that investments offered to the public by the respondents are legitimate;

IT IS ORDERED that in keeping with provisions set out under section 127. (1) of the Securities Act, Glendale Growth & Trust, GT Serv Corp., Leonard Goldman, and companies or individuals acting for or on behalf of these respondents in the trade or in the furtherance of the trade in securities, directly or indirectly, immediately cease trading in all securities in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

TAKE NOTICE that in keeping with section 127.1 (2) the Superintendent of Securities may make an order under section 127.1, notwithstanding the imposition of another penalty or sanction on the respondents or the making of another order related to this matter.
