

Areas of Potential Fluoride Concentration in Well Water

Drilled wells that end in bedrock are more likely to have fluoride in well water.

Legend

Groundwater Wells with Fluoride Concentration:

- between 0.5 and 1.50 mg/L
- greater than 1.5 mg/L

Areas with risk of fluoride being found in well water

mg/L (milligrams per litre)

