

Areas of Potential Uranium Concentration in Well Water

Drilled wells that end in bedrock are more likely to have uranium in well water.

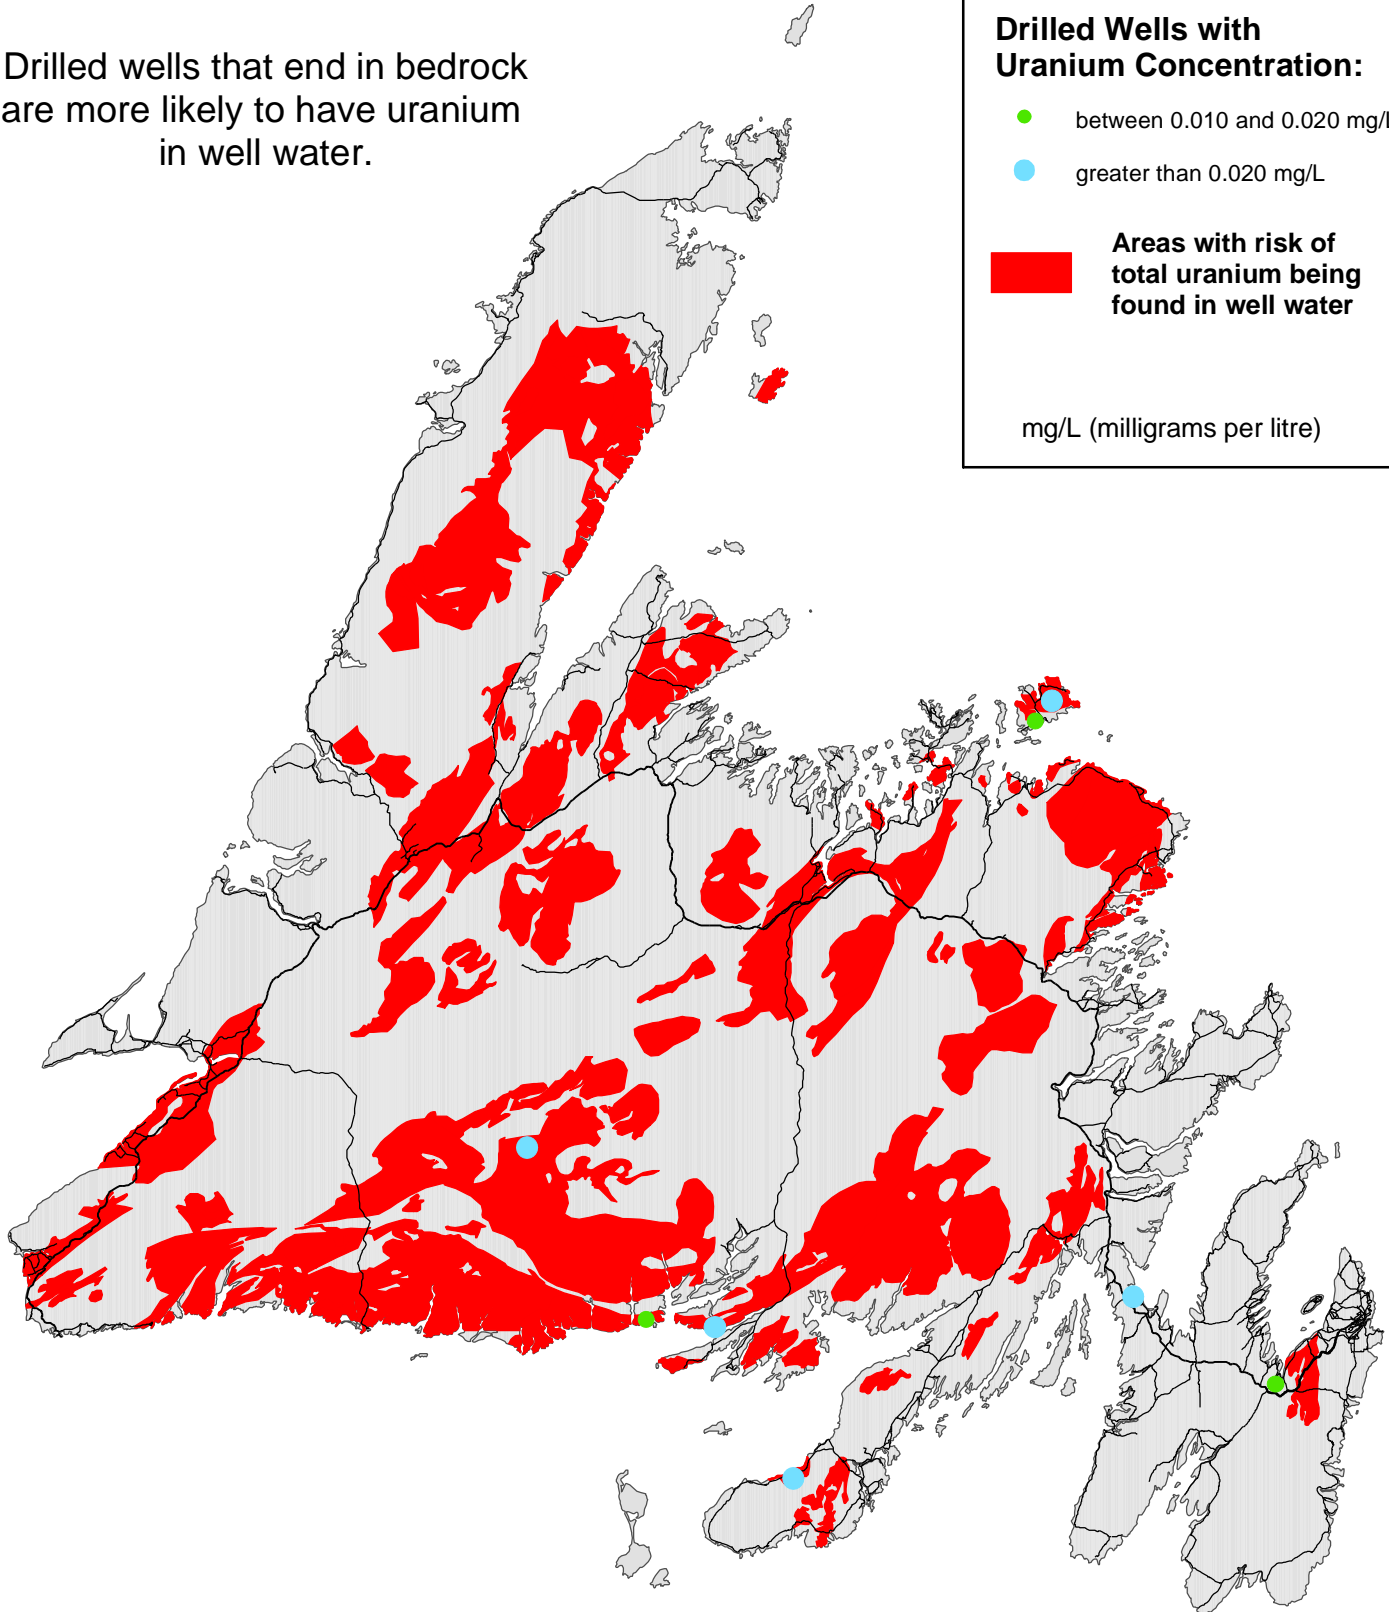

Legend

Drilled Wells with Uranium Concentration:

- between 0.010 and 0.020 mg/L
- greater than 0.020 mg/L

Areas with risk of total uranium being found in well water

mg/L (milligrams per litre)

Government of Newfoundland & Labrador
Department of Natural Resources
Department of Environment & Conservation

0 25 50 100 150 Kilometers