

NL Water Trivia

1. What is the largest freshwater body in Labrador?
2. What is the largest freshwater body on the island of Newfoundland?
3. What landlocked freshwater fjord lake was carved by glaciers millions of years ago and is now a popular tour boat and hiking attraction?
4. What are the province's two designated Canadian Heritage Rivers?
5. Which central Newfoundland river was a canoeing highway for the Beothuk, later a natural 'conveyor belt' for the logging industry and is still a haven for salmon fishers?
6. What river lends its name to one of the province's National Parks?
7. What river was officially renamed in 1965, and is also known as the Hamilton River, Grand River and Mishtashipu?
8. Which eastern Newfoundland river is world renowned for its rich geological history and abundance of trilobite fossils?
9. Which urban lake is host to 'North America's oldest annual sporting event'?
10. What percent of the province's population relies on groundwater for its drinking water?