BAY DU NORD WILDERNESS RESERVE

Bay du Nord Wilderness Reserve is the largest provincially protected area on the island of Newfoundland.

Bay du Nord protects:

- the largest river system in the province
- much of the range of the Middle Ridge Caribou herd and
- important breeding habitat for Canada goose.

Camping

Camps may remain at a single campsite for no more than 10 consecutive days and must be removed or moved to another site once that period ends.

Motorized Vehicles

Use or possession of a car, truck or four wheel drive vehicle is prohibited. ATVs or any off-road motorized vehicles are not permitted.

Snowmobiling

Snowmobiling is permitted outside of sensitive areas and times of the year. See map provided with permit or contact Natural Areas for more information on sensitive locations and times. Please only snowmobile when snow cover is deep enough to protect the ground.

Boating

A person may use outboard motors of up to 6HP within Bay du Nord Wilderness Reserve, except in designated canoe routes as identified by the managing agency.

Aircraft

The landing of aircraft is prohibited within sensitive areas as identified by the managing agency. Aircraft flying through sensitive areas at the times outlined in the reserve management plan must maintain an altitude of 600 metres a.s.l.

Best Practices

Pack it in, pack it out — never leave garbage in the reserve.

If you build a campfire, bring dry firewood and fully extinguish the fire before leaving.

Be prepared: dress for the weather and bring food, water, a map, and a compass. Wear a PFD when boating.

Tell someone your travel plans and when you expect to return.

Keep your distance from wildlife and never harass animals.

AVALON WILDERNESS RESERVE

Avalon Wilderness Reserve protects habitat for the most southerly caribou herd in Canada, the Avalon woodland caribou herd. The reserve also provides wilderness recreation activities close to population centres.

Camping

A person may park a motorized pick-up truck camper for use as a camp within 20 metres of any roadway in the reserve. Camps may remain at a single campsite for no more than 10 consecutive days and must be removed or moved to another site once that period ends.

Motorized Vehicles

Within the Avalon Wilderness Reserve, a person is permitted to use or possess a car, truck or four-wheel drive vehicle on existing roads. ATVs or any off-road motorized vehicles are not permitted.

Snowmobiling

Snowmobiling is not permitted in the Avalon Wilderness Reserve.

Boating

A person may use outboard motors of up to 6HP within Avalon Wilderness Reserve, only on Cape Pond, Mount Carmel Pond, Frank's Pond, Bloody Pond, Southwest Pond or other ponds accessible by road.

Aircraft

Aircraft flying in the Avalon Wilderness Reserve must maintain an altitude of 300 a.s.l. except for the purposes of landing or take-off on a designated pond. See map provided or contact Natural Areas for more information at naturalareas@gov.nl.ca.
