

Introduction to Prospecting

Online Theory | January 4, 2027 – May 28, 2027
Last day to register: April 30, 2027

College of the North Atlantic, in partnership with the Department of Energy and Mines (EM) is offering the Introduction to Prospecting course, through online self-directed study with instructional support. This course is comprised of 30 hours of online theory and 14 hours of in person practical (locations in Eastern, Central, Western and Labrador). After successful completion, students will attain "Genuine Prospector Designation" in the province of NL. Tuition for this course is subsidized by 50% to $737.50 due to the generous support of the Department of Energy and Mines.

Topics Include:

- Geology, Rocks, Minerals, and Mineral Deposits
- Prospecting Tools and Techniques
- Geophysical Operations
- Legislative Framework
- Research, Resources and Supports
- The Business Acumen of Prospecting

Practical Component:

Western - May 29-30, 2027
Central - June 5-6, 2027
Eastern - June 12-13, 2027
Labrador West - June 26-27, 2027

Register Now!

For further information, please contact:
Gail Dober at 709 643 7749, gail.dober@cna.nl.ca

Newfoundland & Labrador

cna College of the North Atlantic