

Freshen Up Your IM Knowledge

Government email addresses should not be used for personal social media platforms.

Clicking on links or attachments in an email from an unknown organization or person could put government's network and information resources at serious risk of cyberattack and security breach.