Home Heating Supplement Program

New for 2026

The supplement amount has doubled!

Apply before January 15, 2027

You could be eligible for a Home Heating Supplement valued between $400 to $1000 to help offset the cost of heating your home.

Who can apply? Residents of Newfoundland and Labrador whose 2025 adjusted family income was $150,000 or less and have directly paid for furnace oil or stove oil to heat their principal residence.

Already applied or received payment this year? No need to reapply. Your additional payment will be issued automatically.
