8. Also, relevant and referred to in this decision are Sections 18, 34 and 35 of the Act, along with Policy 12-001 of the Residential Tenancies Program Policy.

Issue 1: Vacant Possession of the Rental Premises

Landlord Position

9. The landlords testified the tenants were personally served a Landlord's Notice to Terminate- Standard on 2 February 2025 with a request for the tenant to vacate by 31 May 2025. Along with the application, the landlords supplied the termination served to the tenants under Section 18 of the Act (L#2). On the date of the hearing (8 September 2025), the landlords testified the tenants remain in the rental premises.

Tenant Position

10. The tenants did not dispute they were issued the Section 18 termination notice on 2 February 2025 with a request to vacate the rental premises by 31 May 2025.

Analysis

11. The notice was served under Section 18 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 which states:

Notice of termination of rental agreement

18. (2) A landlord shall give the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises

(b) not less than 3 months before the end of a rental period where the residential premises is rented from month to month; and

12. On examination of the termination notice submitted into evidence (L#2), I find that the notice served on 2 February 2025 had a termination date of 31 May 2025. As the termination date identified on the notice is not less than 3 months before the end of the rental period and the date the tenants is required to move out, the termination notice follows the requirements of Section 18 (2)(b).
13. Section 18 (9) and 34 identify the technical requirements of the termination notice.

Section 18 (9)

In addition to the requirements under Section 34, a notice under this section shall

- (a) be signed by the landlord;*
- (b) be given not later than the first day of the rental period;*
- (c) state the date on which the rental agreement terminates and the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises; and*
- (d) be served in accordance with section 35.*

Section 34

A notice under this Act shall

- (a) be in writing in the form prescribed by the minister;*
- (b) contain the name and address of the recipient;*
- (c) identify the residential premises for which the notice is given; and*
- (d) state the section of this Act under which the notice is given.*

14. On examination of the termination notice, I find all these criteria have been met. Further, as identified above, the landlords testified that the termination notice was personally served to tenants, a valid and permissible method of service under Section 35.
15. According to the reasons identified above, I find the termination notice issued by the landlords to be proper and valid. The tenants should have vacated the premises on 31 May 2025.
