Issues before the Tribunal

7. Should the landlord's claim for an order of vacant possession succeed?

Legislation and Policy

8. The jurisdiction of the Director of Residential Tenancies is outlined in sections 46 and 47 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 (the Act).
9. Also considered and referred to in this decision are sections 18(2), 18(9), and 34 of the Act, as follows:

Notice of termination of rental agreement

18. ...

(2) A landlord shall give the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises

(a) not less than 4 weeks before the end of a rental period where the residential premises is rented from week to week;

(b) not less than 3 months before the end of a rental period where the residential premises is rented from month to month; and

(c) not less than 3 months before the end of the term where the residential premises is rented for a fixed term.

(9) In addition to the requirements under section 34, a notice under this section shall

(a) be signed by the person providing the notice;

(b) be given not later than the first day of a rental period;

(c) state the date, which shall be the last day of a rental period, on which the rental agreement terminates and the tenant intends to vacate the residential premises or the date by which the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises; and

(d) be served in accordance with section 35.

Requirements for notices

34. A notice under this Act shall

(a) be in writing in the form prescribed by the minister;

(b) contain the name and address of the recipient;

(c) identify the residential premises for which the notice is given; and

(d) state the section of this Act under which the notice is given.

Issue 1: Vacant Possession

10. To receive an order for vacant possession, a landlord must provide a valid termination notice. To be valid, a notice must comply with all relevant provisions of the Act. The landlord provided a termination notice (L#1) dated 27-March-2026.

11. L#1 is in writing in the form prescribed by the minister. It contains the name and address of the recipient. It identifies the residential premises for which it was given. It states that it was given under section 18 of the Act. It therefore complies with s. 34.

12. The notice was signed by a representative of the landlord. It was served on 27-March-2026, days before the last day of the relevant rental period. It states the date on which the rental agreement is to terminate, 30-June-2026, and this is the last date of a rental period. It was served on the tenant by placing it on her door in accordance with s. 35(2)(c) of the Act. It therefore complies with s. 18(9).

13. L#1 gives a termination date of 30-June-2026, which is not less than 3 months after the date it was served. It therefore complies with s. 18(2).

Decision

14. L#1 complies with all relevant provisions of the Act and is therefore valid.

Summary of Decision

15. The valid termination notice gave a move out date of 30-June-2026. The landlord's application for an order of vacant possession succeeds.
16. The tenant shall vacate the premises immediately.
17. The tenants shall pay to the landlord any costs charged to the landlord, by the Office of the High Sherriff, should the landlord be required to have the Sheriff enforce the attached Order of Possession.
