

Jurisprudence Declaration

The following are the jurisprudence items of responsibility and expectations as a Paramedicine provider licenced with NLPR. Please check (✓) each item as confirmation of awareness and understanding for each criteria listed:

Licensure is required with NLPR for a Critical Care Paramedic (CCP), Advanced Care Paramedic (ACP), Primary Care Paramedic (PCP), Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) or Medical First Responder (MFR) when practicing in the province of Newfoundland and Labrador.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Title usage of CCP, ACP, PCP, EMR or MFR only when licenced with NLPR in the province.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Paramedicine providers require medical authorization when licenced in order to practice.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Paramedicine providers require coverage through liability insurance when employed in a clinical setting.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Each provider:

Must disclose any breach in patient information pertaining to the Oath of Confidentiality.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must obtain knowledge and understanding of the Paramedicine Regulation Policies .	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must disclose and provide any documentation to NLPR surrounding criminal charges and/or convictions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must obtain knowledge and understanding of the Newfoundland & Labrador Occupational Health & Safety Regulations pertaining to work-related duties as specified in Sections: (52-54; 56-58).	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must acquire and maintain a NL Class (4) driver's licence according to the Highway Traffic Act if operating an ambulance in the province. This includes obtaining knowledge and understanding of the Act pertaining to ambulance operations specified in Ch. V; Rules of the Road: Sections: (121-123).	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must obtain knowledge and understanding of the Road Ambulance Policies and Procedures Manual within thirty days of employment with a publicly subsidized ambulance service.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must obtain knowledge and understanding of the Personal Health Information Act (PHIA) .	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must obtain knowledge and understanding of the Ambulance Operations Standards Manual within thirty days of employment with a publicly subsidized ambulance service.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must obtain knowledge and understanding of the Gunshot and Stab Wound Reporting Act .	<input type="checkbox"/>
Must be proficient in the English language in accordance to the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada definition of high proficiency and provide proof upon request to NLPR, if applicable.	<input type="checkbox"/>

I hereby declare I have read the jurisprudence items of responsibility and expectations as a Paramedicine provider in the province of Newfoundland and Labrador. By my signature below in addition to checking each item listed above, I acknowledge, understand, accept and agree to comply and abide with all information as outlined.

Signature: _____

Date: _____
(DD-MONTH-YYYY)