

NLPNP International Graduate Step-by-Step Process

1. Job Offer

TEER level 0, 1, 2, 3, or 4 (TEER 4 must be an in-demand occupation) are eligible under the NLPNP International Graduate category.

Candidates must hold a valid IRCC Post-Graduation work permit (PGWP) that has at least four (4) months validity remaining at the time of application for the NLPNP.

2. Field of Study Requirement

Candidates under the International Graduate category should hold a full-time position that is related to their field of study from the post-secondary program they completed in Canada.

Out-of-province graduates must work for a minimum of one year in Newfoundland and Labrador prior to submitting their NLPNP application, and are required to hold a full-time position related to their field of study.

Graduates of Memorial University or College of the North Atlantic are exempted from the field of study requirement, provided the position meets all of the criteria as detailed in: International Graduate Eligibility Criteria - 8. Working in Field of Study (<https://www.gov.nl.ca/immigration/immigrating-to-newfoundland-and-labrador/provincial-nominee-program/applicants/international-graduate/>)

2. Submit NLPNP Application

Candidate submits online NLPNP application to the Office of Immigration and Multiculturalism International Graduate Category.

4. Permanent Residency Application

If successfully nominated by the province, the candidate also submits a permanent residency application to IRCC.

Federal processing times depend on application category: <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/application/check-processing-times.html>

5. Work Permit Application (if required)

If successfully nominated by the province, the candidate can apply for a provincially supported work permit to ensure they maintain valid status throughout the entire processing of permanent residence application.

6. Become a Permanent Resident of Canada

Settle in Newfoundland and Labrador.
