CITY OF CORNER BROOK

DEVELOPMENT REGULATIONS AMENDMENT DR13-07

BACKGROUND:

The amendment is proposed in order to correct typographical errors in the Residential Special Density and Residential High Density Use Zone Tables affecting the lot coverage standard. In both tables the word "minimum" is used to describe the percentage of lot coverage instead of the correct word "maximum". In all other residential zones, the lot coverage standard is expressed as a maximum standard, and it is the intent in the RSD and RHD zones as well that a maximum lot coverage standard is set.

PUBLIC CONSULTATION:

During the preparation of this amendment, Council advertised the proposed amendments in the Western Star newspaper on August 24, 2013 and August 31, 2013, which advised of Council's intention to seek the said amendment to its 2012 Development Regulations. In addition to this, the proposed amendment was posted on the City's website and was available for viewing at City Hall. There were no submissions in response to the public notification within the specified time period.

AMENDMENT:

The 2012 Development Regulations Use Zone Tables for the Residential Special Density and Residential High Density zones are hereby amended by changing the Lot Coverage (%) from "minimum" to "maximum". Amended pages for each zone are attached.
