

Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board

Activity Plan
2017-2020

Message from the Chairperson

---

On behalf of the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board, I am pleased to submit our Activity Plan for the period April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2020. This plan was prepared in accordance with the Transparency and Accountability Act requirements for category three entities. In developing this plan, the board has considered the strategic directions of Government.

Pursuant to the Regional Appeal Boards Establishment Order, the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board has the authority to hear appeals in the central region of the province. The board's mandate, pursuant to section 42(1) of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000, is to hear appeals brought forward by individuals dissatisfied with a municipality's or another provincial authority's decision regarding land use and development. The board also hears appeals resulting from an order issued under section 404 of the Municipalities Act, 1999.

The members of the board are accountable for the preparation of this plan and the achievement of its objective. We look forward to carrying out our duties in the coming years.

Wesley Harris

Member of the Board

1.0 Overview

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board (the 'board') is established pursuant to the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000. Its board members are appointed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Environment. The board hears appeals related to land use and development issues that arise from decisions made by municipalities or a provincial government authority. Issues which may be appealed to the board include:

- a decision made under Development Regulations;
- a decision to issue an Order under section 102 of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000;
- a decision to issue an Order under section 404 of the Municipalities Act, 1999;
- a decision to refuse to issue a permit under section 194 of the Municipalities Act, 1999;
- a decision made under Interim Development Regulations;
- a decision under a Local Area Plan, Protected Area Plan, Protected Road Zoning Regulations or Highway Sign Regulations;
- a decision made under Occupancy and Maintenance Regulations; and
- decisions made under any other Act or Regulations where specifically designated.

Appeals may be made by a person or an association of persons.

The board considers and determines an appeal in accordance with all relevant legislation, including municipal by-laws. Section 42 of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 outlines procedures with respect to appeals. The board can confirm, reverse or vary a municipal council's or other authority's decision and may impose conditions. The board may direct the municipal council or the relevant authority to carry out its decision.

The board consists of three to five members, including the chairperson appointed by the Minister; a quorum consists of a chairperson and two members. In the absence of a chairperson, another member of the board may act in the chairperson capacity.

A number of board memberships recently expired resulting in five vacancies. The department is actively seeking appointments to fill vacancies through the Independent Appointments Commission process. Current members of the Board are:

The board does not have an office or staff. Administrative and technical support is provided by the Department of Municipal Affairs and Environment.

In addition, the board does not manage its own funds or financial statements and is not required to provide audited financial statements. Board members are paid honoraria as well as related travel expenses from the department's budget.

The following is a summary of the board's 2016-17 expenditures:

Expenditure Item	Expenditure Amount
Honoraria	785
Travel	940
TOTAL	$ 1725

2.0 Mandate

---

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board is mandated by section 42(1) of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 to hear appeals related to:

- (a) an application to undertake a development;
- (b) a revocation of an approval or a permit to undertake a development;
- (c) the issuance of a stop work order; and
- (d) a decision permitted under the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 or another Act to be appealed to the board.

The board's geographic area of jurisdiction is prescribed in section 2(b) of the Regional Appeal Boards Establishment Order, under the authority of section 40 of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000:

"...Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board, having jurisdiction over Central Newfoundland and more particularly described as all that area of the Island of Newfoundland situated east of a line drawn from Hampton to Rose Blanche excluding both of those communities and west of a line drawn from Port Blandford to Terrenceville and excluding both of those communities."

The Regional Appeal Boards Establishment Order and the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000 may be accessed through the House of Assembly website at www.assembly.nl.ca/legislation.

3.0 Values

The core values explain the guiding framework for board members. These values are demonstrated in decision-making and through interactions with each other and through interactions with clients and stakeholders. The value action statements ensure the core values are visible by identifying specific actions the Board will observe during the period of this activity plan.

Core Values

Value Action Statements

Respect:	Members will be considerate when interacting with others.
Recognition:	Members will appropriately acknowledge the contributions of others.
Collaboration:	Members pursue opportunities for working with others to achieve a common goal.

4.0 Primary Clients

The board's primary clients are the following groups within the Central Region:

- residents who feel aggrieved by a council's or another authority's decision related to land use or development;
- businesses who feel aggrieved by a council's or another authority's decision related to land use or development;
- municipal councils; and
- provincial government departments.

5.0 Vision

---

The vision of the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board is:

The public, municipalities and other authorities have access to an effective process to hear appeals of decisions filed with the board.

6.0 Issue

Issue: Land Use and Development Appeals

The board's adjudication of appeals enables municipal councils and other government authorities to gain a better understanding of the application of land use and development legislation and a more complete understanding of the appeal process.

The board decided not to develop three year goals in its 2017-20 activity plan. Instead, it developed a single annual objective and associated indicators to be reported on in each of the three years of its activity plan.

Objective: By March 31, 2018, 2019, 2020 the Eastern Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board will have heard appeals and have rendered decisions in a timely fashion.

Indicators:

- number of appeals heard.
- number of appeal hearing days.
- number of written decisions rendered within 21 days from date of hearing.

The above objective and associated indicators will also be undertaken and reported on in subsequent years of this activity plan.
