Overview

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board (the “Board”) is established by the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000. Its Board members are appointed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Environment. The Board hears appeals related to land use and development issues that arise from decisions made by municipalities or a provincial government authority. Issues which may be appealed to the Board include:

- a decision made under Municipal Development Regulations;

- decisions made under any other Act or regulations where specifically designated.

Appeals may be made by a person or an association of persons.

The Board considers and determines an appeal in accordance with all relevant legislation, including municipal by-laws, Municipal Plans and Development Regulations. Section 42 of the Urban and Rural Planning Act, 2000, outlines procedures with respect to appeals. The Board can confirm, reverse or vary a municipal council’s or other authority’s decision and may impose conditions. Further, the Board may direct the municipal council or the relevant authority to carry out its decision.

The Board consists of three to five members, including a chairperson. All members are appointed by the Minister; a quorum consists of a chairperson and two members. In the absence of a chairperson, another member of the Board may act in the chairperson capacity. The Board had

Report on Performance

Issue: Land Use and Development Appeals

The Board's adjudication of appeals enables municipal councils and other government authorities to gain a better understanding of the application of land use and development legislation and a more complete understanding of the appeal process.

The Board decided to identify a single annual objective and associated indicators to be reported on in each of the three years of its 2017-2020 Activity Plan.

Objective

By March 31, 2018 the Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board will have heard appeals and have rendered decisions in a timely fashion.

The indicators established were:

- number of appeals heard.
- number of appeal hearing days.
- number of written decisions rendered within 21 days from date of hearing.

The Central Newfoundland Regional Appeal Board was unable to reach quorum throughout 2017-18 and, as such, no appeals were heard this fiscal year. Eight appeals were received by the board throughout 2017-18. The Board is anticipated to have full membership early in 2018-19 fiscal year and will resume hearing appeals once quorum is met.

Opportunities and Challenges

The opportunity for the Board is to make a positive contribution to municipal governance and land use planning through the hearing of appeals and rendering decisions in compliance with applicable legislation. Municipalities can strengthen their future decision-making through referencing decisions rendered by the Board.

The challenge for the Board is to hear the appeals and render decisions in a timely manner while also working to modernize processes, increasing training opportunities, and adhering to administrative law principles and best practices for quasi-judicial tribunals.
