Department of Justice and Public Safety/Royal Newfoundland Constabulary	Survey Equipment	Cansel	Dartmouth	NS	$ 14,600.00	219030603	2/4/2020	N/A	N/A	6(a)(v) only available source	This purchase is for survey equipment. The current roaming receiver component of survey equipment used by the Accident Investigation section of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary (RNC) is obsolete and requires replacement. Being replaced is one of three components that make up the survey equipment from the same company. They need to be compatible. Accident Investigation will often measure or survey collision or crime scenes as part of an investigation and is an invaluable equipment. As the technology has advanced since original acquisition, the replacement of the current survey equipment (referred to as GNSS) is required. Accident Investigation is experiencing issues with the current system (8 yrs old) which resulted in the loss of use until service could be provided. Cansel is the authorized distributor from Trimble Inc.
