

Newfoundland and Labrador Seniors of Distinction Awards

Guidelines and Nomination Forms

The Newfoundland and Labrador Seniors of Distinction Awards recognize and celebrate the contributions, achievements and diversity of seniors throughout Newfoundland and Labrador.

Who can I nominate?

- Nominee must be 50 years of age or older.
- Nominee must be a current or past resident of Newfoundland and Labrador.
- Past or present public officials are eligible for nomination.
- Self nominations are not accepted.
- Nominations can be for voluntary or paid work.
- Posthumous awards may be given.
- Awards are presented to individuals; group nominations (including couples) are not eligible.

Who should be nominated?

It is important to recognize the many contributions people make throughout their lifetime. We invite you to nominate people who have enriched our physical, social, cultural and/or community well-being including those who have been age-friendly community champions at local, provincial, national and/or international level.

Who can nominate?

Nominations can be submitted by an individual, group or organization.

How do I nominate?

Enclose all of the following:

1. Nominator information (including signature).
2. Nominee information (including signature).
3. Reasons for nomination.
4. Two (2) letters of support (including signature).
5. Additional information (if desired).

How are the award recipients selected?

A selection committee will review the nominations and make recommendations to the Minister of Children, Seniors and Social Development.
