

Call of the wolf

The echo rings across the night
The melody's magic an amazing sight
The sound calls out to the majestic sky
With grace and beauty the chorus cries
The smooth and steady bellowing sound
The moon in which it howls is full and round
The harmony is heard from mountains high
The great wolf sings its lullaby.

By: Sarah Collins